Notice to Parent Receiving Support

If you agree with the statements in this Affidavit and agree to termination of the obligation to pay support for the child, you may, but are not required to, file an Acknowledgement with the Court. Upon your filing of an Acknowledgement, a judgment terminating the obligation to pay support for the child will be entered.

If you disagree with the statements in this Affidavit and object to termination of the obligation to pay support for the child, you must file with the Court an Answer which states the reasons the obligation to pay support for the child should continue. Upon your filing of an Answer, the Court will treat this Affidavit as a motion to modify, will schedule an evidentiary hearing, and may require payment of a deposit as security for costs.

Your failure to file an Acknowledgment or Answer with the Court within 30 days of your receipt of this Affidavit may result in entry by default of a judgment terminating the obligation to pay support for the child.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the Affidavit must be served on each person. If any person refuses to receive the copy of the Affidavit when offered to him, the return shall be prepared to show the offer of the officer to deliver the Affidavit and the person’s refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the Affidavit to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the Affidavit at the individual’s dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age, or by delivering a copy of the Affidavit to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the Affidavit to the guardian personally.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory in the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word “territory” for the word “state.”

If service is made outside of Missouri, the officer making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant’s authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

The return should be made promptly.
