Affidavit for Termination of Child Support

(This form may be used only where a claim is made that no child remains entitled to support.)

I, [REDACTED], am receiving support paying support for [REDACTED] (hereinafter referred to as the child), whose age is [REDACTED] and who is no longer entitled to support because:

(Check all which are applicable):

- The child died on (date).
- The child married on (date).
- The child entered active duty in the military on (date).
- The child has become self-supporting, and the custodial parent has relinquished the child from parental control by express or implied consent.
- The child has attained the age of 21.
- The child is enrolled in and attending a secondary (high) school program of instruction but has attained the age of 21.
- The child has attained the age of 18 and
 - has not graduated from secondary (high) school or completed a graduation equivalence degree program and, upon reaching age 18, was not attending and progressing toward completion of a secondary (high) school program of instruction.
 - has graduated from secondary (high) school or completed a graduation equivalence degree program but did not enroll in an institution of vocational or higher education by October 1 following graduation or completion of the graduation equivalence degree program.
 - has enrolled in an institution of vocational or higher education by October 1 following graduation from secondary (high) school or completion of a graduation equivalence degree program, but failed to achieve grades sufficient to re-enroll at such institution or failed to complete sufficient credit hours in each semester (at least 12 semester hours or the equivalent).
 - when enrolled and attending an institution of vocational or higher education (course load of at least 12 hours), received failing grades in half or more of his/her course load in any one semester.
 - when enrolled and attending an institution of vocational or higher education, the child failed to provide the non-custodial parent with documentation of grades from the education institution as requested by the non-custodial parent.
- The child is not physically or mentally incapacitated from supporting himself or herself, and the child's circumstances do not manifestly dictate that child support should continue.
- Other: [REDACTED]

The facts in this Affidavit are true to my best knowledge and belief and are made under penalty of perjury.

Notice to Parent Receiving Support

If you agree with the statements in this Affidavit and agree to termination of the obligation to pay support for the child, you may, but are not required to, file an Acknowledgement with the Court. Upon your filing of an Acknowledgement, a judgment terminating the obligation to pay support for the child will be entered.

If you disagree with the statements in this Affidavit and object to termination of the obligation to pay support for the child, you must file with the Court an Answer which states the reasons the obligation to pay support for the child should continue. Upon your filing of an Answer, the Court will treat this Affidavit as a request for hearing.

Your failure to file an Acknowledgment or Answer with the Court within 30 days of your receipt of this Affidavit may
